DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 19 July 2004 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claim 27 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. It is not clear what is meant by "ondular". The specification does not define this word, and the examiner could not find a dictionary definition.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 25-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 25 and 38, the transitional word (i.e. between the preamble and the body of a claim) "characterized" and phrases incorporating it ("characterized by", "characterized in that", etc.) are common in applications of European origin in us practice claims containing these words and phrases may be rejectable under 35 USC 112 ¶2 when characterization may connote more than mere description (the dictionary definition); in scientific parlance characterization may imply one or more physical steps or procedures (e.g. structure determination, elemental analysis, or qualitative tests) to identify a product. Since it is rare that applicant intends more than a mere description when using this language, physical steps are rarely disclosed. As such, the reader may be unsure about the meaning of the wording of the claims, and additionally the scope of the claim is often unclear ("characterized" conveys no degree of openness). Usually these troublesome words or phrases can be replaced by the standard transitional words "having", "comprising", "wherein". Here, there is no degree of openness, and the scope of the claims cannot be determined.

Further, claim 27 is rejected under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, for the reasons given above, in that the claim cannot be readily understood until the work "ondular" has been defined.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 25-40 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
